

SOCIOLOGY

Status Project

What you will be doing:

- With a partner, collect 10 magazine, newspaper, or internet pictures showing achieved statuses and 10 pictures showing ascribed statuses; each picture should be displayed on a separate slide.
- Create a photo essay showing how the two types of statuses differ. Be sure to describe what each type of status includes.
- You must have a title and a brief explanation of your photo essay.
- You should use power point. Each slide should have a caption. Remember you are demonstrating an understanding of the two types of statuses.

Your presentation must include:

- Visual (power point - must be neat, creative, colorful)
- Should include at least 23 slides
- Verbal explanation clearly demonstrating your understanding of the subject. No reading. Be able to discuss additional facts that are not on the slides.
- You must use either a CD, memory stick, save on your H drive, or email this project to me. Also, you need to print out a handout copy of your presentation (6 slides to a page) to be turned in on _____.
- Presentations begin on _____.
- This project is worth 50 points:
  - Content: 30 points
  - Visual: 10 points
  - Presentation: 10 points
