

17. Explain a social network.
18. What are the characteristics of bureaucracies according to sociologist Max Weber's theoretical model?
19. What is the difference between an in-group and an out-group?
20. How large can a small group be?
21. How small can a small group be?
22. What is the iron law of oligarchy?

Fill-in-the-blanks:

23. _____ statuses are not based on an individual's abilities, efforts, or accomplishments.
24. Individuals acquire an _____ status through their own direct efforts.
25. A triad is a group with _____ members; a _____ is a group with two members.
26. A _____ association is typically a nonprofit organization formed to pursue some common interest.
27. A state of balance between cooperation and conflict is called _____.
28. When two or more people or groups oppose each other to achieve a goal that only one can attain, _____ occurs.
29. _____ occurs when two or more people or groups work together to achieve a goal that will benefit more than one person.
30. Role _____ occurs when fulfilling the role expectations of one status makes it difficult to fulfill the role expectations of another status.
31. The _____ represents people that interact with one another regularly on the Internet.
32. The concentration of the population in cities is referred to as _____.
33. People who influence the attitudes and opinions of others are said to be _____.

34. A social _____ is simply a means of classifying people according to a shared trait or a common status.
35. When people gather in the same place at the same time but lack organization or lasting patterns of interaction, they form an _____.
36. _____ is the deliberate attempt to control a person by force, to oppose someone, or to harm another person.
37. Statuses and their related roles determine the structure of the various groups in society. When these statuses and roles are organized to satisfy one or more of the basic needs of society, the group is called a social _____.
38. When people interact in an effort to receive a reward or a return for their actions, an _____ has taken place.
39. The exchange of a good or service is called _____.
40. A small group of people who interact over a relatively long period of time on a direct and personal basis is a _____ group.